

Our best endorsement is the smiles on JumpBunch kids' faces. Kids have fun and parents really notice the positive impact on their children!

A Superior Franchise Business Opportunity!

Thank you for your interest in JumpBunch, the unique franchise that introduces children to sports and fitness. The enclosed CD will give you a better idea of what this business opportunity is all about. You'll see a real JumpBunch class in action, learn what makes this business model unique and hear from JumpBunch kids, parents, school directors, even several current franchise owners.

JumpBunch provides superior sales and marketing materials. Unlike many franchises, most of these materials are included - covered by the normal JumpBunch franchise fees.

JumpBunch may just be the business opportunity you've been looking for:

- Solid support with plenty of entrepreneurial freedom.
- Work with children in a fun, positive environment.
- Enjoy relatively low start-up costs and low ongoing overhead.
- No prior teaching, sports or childhood education experience needed.
- Meet the growing need to add sports and fitness to young people's lives.
- Grow as large as your ambition and market potential will allow.

This introduction is just a start. If you're serious about launching your own business, the next step will be to talk with Tom Bunchman and his team directly. Before you make any commitment, they will help you explore the market potential for JumpBunch in your area and work with you to determine if you and JumpBunch are indeed a good fit for each other.
